

Games of the oppressed

Greetings:

Greet yourself (and your colleagues).
Perform a gesture of celebration to show your appreciation of this gathering.

OR:
Grab something from your pocket
Play a game with it while others greet you.
Reflect on your experience to the group.

Safety

In a Rush?
Try looking up some common safety tools used in social games.
Critique them.

OR:
Discuss among the group what you can do to care for each other.

Model

Not all systems need your help.
LEAVE THEM ALONE.
DON'T TOUCH THE ART

OR:

Testing

Discuss how each change feels.
Share your needs.
Plant a garden.

OR:
Test your changes in a court of law.

Breaking

What will you change about the system you're playing in?

What more will you add to it?

OR:
What are you ready for?
Blow up a pipeline.

Rules

You might sometimes be asked to change rules parts of the game.
This may feel like improv.
Something you are not ready for.

OR:
Change the rules

Design your community experience://////////////////////////////////////”-----

Name:

Connection made:

Reason to contact: